Musical Takeover of Beverley

1 Let the Bells Ring Out

9am - 10am | St Mary's Church

The fabulous bell-ringing team of St Mary's ring in our day with a quarter peal. The bell tower will be open to visitors after the ringing.

2 Serenade

10am - 10:30am | Market Cross

New Paths string players serenade the shoppers of Saturday Market at the Market Cross with the ultimate in outdoor classical musical entertainment, Mozart's famous Eine kleine Nachtmusik.

3 Well Strung

10:30am - 11am
Peter Hall Violins, Norwood

We make a return visit to the workshop and studio of local violin maker, Peter Hall. A special opportunity to see Peter and his fellow craftsmen at work. Fenella and Andrew entertain the crowd with one of the great duos for violin and viola, Sarabande con variazione (after Handel) by Norwegian composer Johan Halvorsen, and discuss their lives in music.

EAST RIDING OF YORKSHIRE COUNCIL

4 Rococo!

11am - 11:30am | Guildhall

The doors of The Guildhall are being thrown open on a Saturday especially for the festival. A chance to visit one of the most fascinating historic buildings in town. Walk through the striking portico into the Georgian courtroom with its exquisite Rococo decoration to hear a performance of a joyful Handel recorder sonata by Ian Wilson.

5 Free but Lonely

11:30am - 12:30pm | East Riding Theatre

Four festival violinists and Artistic Director Libby Burgess play the FAE Sonata, written as a collaboration by friends Schumann, Brahms and Dietrich, and named after Brahms' motto Frei Aber Einsam. Alongside this Carris Jones and Johnny Herford sing romantic and light-hearted duets by Brahms.

6 Organists Entertain

12:30pm - 1pm | Beverley Minster

Our resident festival organ students, highly talented young players who have been selected from Oundle for Organists courses, give informal performances in the Minster. Come and hear the imposing sound of the mighty Minster organ in this stunning building.

Oundle FOR ORGANISTS

7 Ploughman's Lunch

1pm - 2pm | Minster Parish Hall

The legendary New Paths ploughman's lunch returns, for the bargain price of £5 a head.

8 Brass Attack!

2pm - 2:30pm
Flemingate shopping centre

A group of young local brass players present the music they've been working on this week in a special workshop led by stupendous trumpeter Alex Caldon.

For information on how to join the brass workshop, see page 29.

9 Messing About on the River

2:30pm - 3:30pm | Beverley Beck

New Paths performers play on the deck of the Syntan, which is specially opened to visitors by the Beverley Barge Preservation Society.

Their smallest vessel, the Mermaid, will be making free short trips up and down the Beck (prior booking recommended).

The Beverley Barge Preservation Society

10 Mozart the Mason

3:30pm - 4pm | Masonic Temple

An extremely rare opportunity to see inside the Masonic Temple, and to hear Mozart's beautiful Quintet for horn and strings in such a setting. Mozart is the most famous musical Mason, whose number also includes Sibelius and Haydn.

11 Freddie's

4pm - 4:30pm
Toll Gavel United Church

The culmination of a major New Paths outreach project with Frederick Holmes School in Hull for children with severe physical disabilities and profound and multiple needs. Come and hear this specially composed piece performed by students alongside New Paths artists.

Hop on the Beverley Bar Bus

We are delighted that the 1956 vintage Beverley Bar Bus will be in town especially for the day. With a specially curved roof so it could go through the North Bar, this double deck bus was an iconic local feature.

Nowadays East Yorkshire Motor Services hire out the bus for weddings and special occasions. Hop on board the bus during its time in Beverley and take a look at the vintage interior or take one of the short journeys around Beverley per the timetable below.

If you're lucky you may hear some of our musicians giving ad hoc performances on the bus.

All aboard 'Mermaid'

Mermaid is the smallest boat in the Beverley Barge Preservation Society's fleet. Built in 1986 in Korea, she was originally a lifeboat tender to the Trinity House vessel also called Mermaid.

She was used to take crew members to lighthouses, buoys and other navigational equipment. Today we are thrilled that she is celebrating the Musical Takeover of Beverley by making short (20-minute) trips up the Beck at the times below. Mermaid only carries 8 passengers so prior booking is recommended.

Please email admin@newpathsmusic.com to book a place on a trip or just turn-up and take a chance.

10:00am | 11:00am | 12:00pm | 13:00pm | 14:00pm | 15:00pm

Some additional trips may take place on the half hour, subject to demand.

Mermaid's biggest sister in the fleet, Syntan, will be open the public from 10am until 4pm.

Step on board to see the museum of the Beverley Barge Preservation Society and hear our musicians perform at 2.30pm.
